

Women in Scotland - sharing our experience, learning from others and making our voices heard

Thursday 2 December 2010

10.30 - 16.00

Menzies Glasgow Hotel

27 Washington Street, Glasgow

AGENDA

- 10.30 Registration and coffee
- 10.30 Welcome and Opening Remarks: Chair, Ann Henderson, WNC Scotland Commissioner
- 10.45 Introduction to the Scottish Resource Centre for Women in Science, Engineering and Technology: Linda Somerville, Project Manager
Followed by contributions from SRC Project participants
- 11.25 Presentation (including short film) Loraine Martins, Head of Equality, Inclusion, Employment and Skills, Olympic Delivery Authority - London 2012
- 12.00 Q & A
- 12.30-3.30 Lunch break and informal networking followed by hot buffet lunch
- 13.30 Christine Reid, Scottish Government
- 14.00-15.00 Roundtable discussions on the CEDAW themes
(focusing on: Women in the Economy, including occupational segregation; violence against women; international mechanisms; women in decision making)
- 15.00 Coffee break
- 15.15-16.00 Review of roundtable discussions and thoughts on future arrangements for Government engagement with women and women's organizations. Chair Ann Henderson WNC Commissioner

